

BEFORE CAPITULUM QUINTUM REVIEW

(Make multiple photocopies of this page for review and practice)

Before you start Capitulum Quintum, stop to review and make sure you KNOW what you have learned about Latin nouns, pronouns, and verbs up to this point.

The blank _____ means you should KNOW this ending. The blank means you will meet it very soon in Chapter V.

NOUNS

	MASC		FEM		NEUT
	S	PL	S	PL	S	PL
NOM	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
ACC	_____	_____	_____
GEN	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
after in	_____
VOC	_____ (All other vocatives are the same as the _____.)

PRONOUNS use the letter ____ - before the same ending as the noun which they replace

EXCEPT (a) an -us name is replaced by _____, and

(b) a possessive is replaced by _____.

Nominative is used for the _____ and when the verb is _____.

Accusative is used for the _____ and is usually _____ (where) in the sentence.

Genitive shows _____ (English preposition _____ or the punctuation _____); is always used after the word _____.

Vocative is used when you _____.

VERBS

	FACTS		ORDERS
	S	PL	S	PL
1	_____	_____
2	_____	_____
3	_____	_____	( _____, _____, _____)
4	_____	_____	( _____, _____, _____)
Irreg est	_____	_____	