

Objectives & Endings for the Before Capitulum V Review

IV.I Objectives:

1. Figure out and learn the meanings of the new words above;
2. Learn to count to ten in Latin;
3. Figure out why vocā! (line 24) and venī! (line 27) have dropped the -t and added a long mark; To give an order/command
4. Figure out why Dāvus' name changed to Dāve (lines 25 and 27).
talking to him, calling him by name, direct address

IV.II Objectives:

1. Figure out and learn the meanings of the new words above;
2. Get more practice giving orders in Latin and calling people by name or title;
3. Learn how the ORDER form of tacet, respondet and habet are formed: they dropped the -t and added a long mark; To give an order/command tacet -> tacē! respondet -> respondē! habet -> habē!
4. Learn how the ORDER form of pōnit, sūmit, and discēdit differs from other -it verbs; it changes to -e! i.e. pōnit -> pone! sūmit -> sūme! discēdit -> discēde!
5. Learn what name endings the Pronouns "is" and "eius" replace;
is replaces -us names
eius replaces -ī _____ or -ae (possessive names)
6. Distinguish between the meanings of suus-a-um (his) and eius (his).
Suus-a-um = the Subject's own and eius = someone else's or replaces a possessive

IV.III Objective:

Learn the difference between using is on line 81 and NOT using is on line 84.
The only time Latin uses a subject pronoun is when it is stressed or contrasted with someone else.

IV.IV Objectives:

1. Figure out and learn the meanings of the new words above;
2. Learn, or review in chart form, the vocative case for a man's name; i.e. Dave, Mede
3. Learn, or review in chart form, the Imperative (command form) for the four types of verbs.
