Bibliography for the 2021 Pegasus Mythology Exam

Administration dates: February 22 - March 5, 2021

The questions for the PME are based on the information from the sources listed below.
Please note: Students are responsible for knowing both Greek and Latin names.

Exam requirements based on the grade level of the students:

| | General Myth (30 Questions) | Thematic Section (10 Questions) | Classical Subtest (Aeneid or Odyssey) 10 Questions |
|---|---|---|---|
| Grades 3-4 | required | | |
| Grade 5-6 | required | required | |
| Grades 7-8 | required | required | ONE required |

GENERAL MYTHOLOGY SECTION (required of all students who take the Exam)

(1) d'Aulaires, Ingri and Edgar. d'Aulaires' Book of Greek Myths. New York: Doubleday and Co., 1962.
Myths and information on gods and goddesses pages 1-69
Greek and Roman names of the gods and goddesses pages 186-187

(2) Guerber, H.A. The Myths of Greece and Rome. New York: Dover Publications, Inc. 1993.
Myths and information on gods and goddesses pages 1-175
Greek and Roman names of the gods and goddesses Index

THEMATIC SECTION (required for students in grades 5-8)
Theme for 2021 Exam is Transformations: Tithonous/Eos, Phaethon/Heliades, Echo/Narcissus

(1) d'Aulaires (1962) pages 80-84, 92
(2) Guerber, H.A. only pages 64-68, 70-71, 96-98

CLASSICAL SUBTESTS (one of these subtests is required for students in grades 5-8)

Aeneid, Book 1 OR Odyssey, Book 23

Quotations for textual analysis may be taken from any of the following translators:

Homer' s Odyssey: Trans. Robert Fagles. New York: Viking, 1996.
Trans. Robert Fitzgerald. New York: Farrar, Straus, And Giroux, 1998.
Trans. Emily Watson. New York: W.W. Norton & Company, 2018.

Virgil's Aeneid: Trans. Robert Fitzgerald. New York: Random House, 1983.
Trans. Robert Fagles and Bernard Knox. New York: Penguin Books, 2008.

Since no standard translation is being recommended for the test, a list of classical spellings that will be used on the Exam are included here: https://bit.ly/nme_names